

Reconciliation Indigenous Cultural Celebration

Reigniting the Ceremonial Fire

Participate in a reconciliation ceremony with the Wurundjeri people, the Traditional Custodians of the land now known as Nillumbik.

Bringing community spirit back to the traditional meeting ground at the confluence of the Diamond Creek and the Birrurung (Yarra River) the ceremonial fire will be reignited in the stone circle which has hosted such events for many years.

Also enjoy indigenous craft activities.

BBQ available by donation from Eltham Men's Shed.

When: Sunday 27 May from 10.00am - 2.00pm

Where: Lenister Reserve, 60 Homestead Road, Eltham 3095
